Community Events

The Association Francophone de Nanaimo Christmas party is back again this year! We look forward to seeing as many of you as ever at the École Océane on Saturday, December 9, 2023, and to seeing the children excited by the magic of the party. As always, there'll be music, children's activities and a potluck to share!

The Great Nanaimo Toy Drive:

The Great Nanaimo Toy Drive coordinates the donation and distribution of toys to families in need during the holiday season for children 0 – 17 who live in Nanaimo between Lantzville and Cedar. Families wishing to take advantage of this program must pre-register online or by phone this year.

Registration for the 2023 Great Nanaimo Toy Drive begins November 13th and runs until December 3rd.

Families can register here or by Telephone at 778-787-1803 Tuesday to Saturday. A detailed schedule for phone volunteers will be available on our website or on social media.

Only one parent/guardian can register, and the preferred identification is the child's Personal Health Number. Alternative Identification could include a Status Card or Permanent Resident Card for each child.

ADHD Education Day:

On Monday, December 11, 2023 from 9am until 3pm, the Provincial ADHD Clinic at BC Children's Hospital is holding their annual ADHD Education Day for parents and professionals. This event is accessible in person as well as via Zoom. Registration is free; however, you must register to attend in-person or virtually. Should you have any questions, please contact Joerg Taylor-Philippin at adhdc@cw.bc.ca or call 604-875-2345 (Ext. 2081).

Some of the sessions include:

- ADHD Basics
- Parenting a Child with ADHD
- Medication Treatment and Management
- ADHD and Sensory Motor Regulation
- Panel Discussion

EVERYBODY DESERVES A SMILE

As you know, Ecole Hammond Bay is the host school for this year's EDAS (Everybody Deserves a Smile) project. In partnership with 10 other NLPS schools, we are collecting donations, baking cookies, decorating bags, and making heartfelt cards to create over 800 care packages for people in need in our community.

Here is a link to an EDAS All-In-One presentation with specific information about this year's project: EDAS project All-in-One

Packing day will be in our gym on December 20th from 9:00am to 1:30pm.

We have attached the Nanaimo EDAS Project posters to this email for your information.

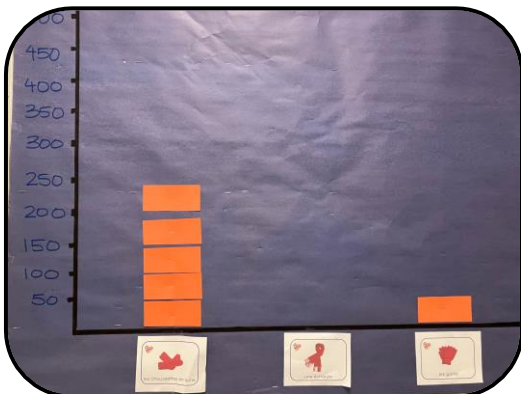

We are collecting:

- Woolen socks
- Toques
- Mitts/Gloves
- Scarves

Sizes:

- Men & Nonbinary: XL
- Women: Medium
